Dear Paul:

Your kind note of November 12 was deeply appreciated. One of the regrets of my summers work at Abilene has been the lack of time to correspond with many of you that I came to love and respect. Your letter was a reminder of the pleasant hours and days which I enjoyed with you at Abilene.

I plan to be in Oklahoma City next Tuesday night and Wednesday, November 26 and 27 with seven high school seniors boys visiting O.C.C. Plans call for me to speak in the O.C.C. chapel on Wednesday morning. If Tulsa wasn't so far from Oklahoma City, I would love to have you come up and visit with me on Wednesday morning.

Our deepest regards to you and best wishes for your work.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
